

REMARKS

The December 22, 2003 response discusses 3 terminal disclaimers as being submitted to overcome double patenting rejections. The terminal disclaimers themselves were inadvertently omitted from the papers submitted on December 22, 2003, and are being submitted at the present time.

Interview Summary

The applicants thank the examiner for the courtesy extended during telephone conversations on January 9, 2004 and January 14, 2004. The Applicants record of these conversations per MPEP 713.04 is as follows:

- (A) No exhibit or demonstration was used.
- (B) Specific claims were not discussed.
- (C) Prior art was not discussed.
- (D) No amendments were discussed.
- (E) No arguments were made.
- (F) The Examiner pointed out that the terminal disclaimers discussed in the December 22, 2003 response had not been submitted.
- (G) Agreement was reached that the Applicants should submit a supplemental response attaching the terminal disclaimers, and that the response should be submitted via facsimile to 703-872-9306.
- (H) The interview was not conducted via e-mail.

CONCLUSION

The Applicants respectfully request the reconsideration and withdrawal of all pending rejections and objections, and allowance of the claims.

Respectfully submitted,

KENYON & KENYON
